Final Levitt okay tonight?

NEW LENOX — After months of study, arguments and counter-arguments, the New Lenox Plan Commission Monday voted to recommend granting of R-3 zoning with variation for the Planned Unit Development for the proposed Greenbriar subdivision.

The matter will now be presented to Wednesday's meeting of the village board for final approval.

The approval came following a victory for Supt. Joseph Kruzich of the Lincoln Way Community High School District 210. For months Kruzich has been arguing for a contribution toward the high school district by Levitt Residential Communities Inc., developers of Greenbriar. At Monday's meeting, Kruzich made what he termed his "last formal presentation before this board."

In his remarks, Kruzich emphasized the additional burden which would be placed on the high school district by the construction of the Greenbriar subdivision. He submitted a copy of his study by the Illinois School Consulting Firm to support his arguments.

Kruzich explained that the per capita cost of educating students at Lincoln Way is $1125 not including the approximate $250 per pupil received from state aid. He then proceeded to quote statistics from the Illinois School Consulting Firm study regarding the approximate number of students anticipated from the Greenbriar subdivision, and to relate these figures to the per capita cost of education.

According to Levitt's first year construction plans, Kruzich said, a total of 33 high school students could be expected. He explained that this meant 13 students from the 40 single dwellings and 20 students from the 80 quadruplexes. The approximate cost to the district for the first year education of these students is $37,125, he said.

The second year construction plans, Kruzich said, would mean 16 new students from the building of 50 more single dwellings and 22 new students from the additional 90 quadruplexes, for a total of 71 students and a cost to the district of $68,625.

Third year plans he said, would mean 16 additional students from the 50 more single dwelling and 25 new students from the 100 more quadruplexes, for a total of 112 new students and a cost to the district of $80,103.

Due to the tax lag, Kruzich explained, an approximate $34,647 would be payable after the third year on property assessed during the first year. This would still mean a difference of $114,647, he explained.

He also said that he was unable to compute estimated student enrollment for the fourth and fifth year of development because he did not have the figures on the number of grade school students who would then be entering high school.

In an impassioned plea to the plan commission, Kruzich emphasized that he was simply an employee of the district and that the school itself belonged to the people of the four communities served. He moved from commission member to commission member stressing "This is your school."

He told the commission that he had been instructed by his board to alert the city fathers of the four communities served that they would have to assume the obligation of protecting the school from mounting costs due to enrollment. If they did not assume this duty, he said, it would mean the hiring of a $20,000 per year assistant whose sole purpose would be to guard the school against such problems. "I just don't have the time," he added.

Within three years, Kruzich said, he would to request a $4 million bond issue unless action was taken immediately to assist the school by contributions from developers as they moved into the area.

Following the Kruzich presentation, commission chairman Louis Leebe turned to the commission members and asked "Gentlemen, what is your pleasure?" He added that, with the exception of the high school complication, Levitt had met all specifications demanded by the commission.

A motion was immediately placed before the board that no zoning action be taken until the school problem had been resolved. This motion, however, died for lack of a second.

Commission member Earl Mon-gomery then began to quiz Kenneth Campbell, representative of Levitt, regarding the difficulties which existed between the developer and the school. Campbell begged for time to study the Kruzich presentation, adding that the figures presented a new picture and that he was not prepared to make an offer on such short notice.

On the other hand, Campbell argued, the zoning should be approved immediately because Levitt was facing complications by the delay in building.

Campbell argued that Levitt had entered into its original agreement with the New Lenox community anticipating a cost factor which did not include a financial contribution to the high school. He said he did not feel the firm could now alter its financial expectations.

Kruzich responded by pointing out that Levitt had increased the selling price on its homes by approximately $6000 since the original annexation agreement had been signed. Surely, he said, it could likewise increase its cost factor to include assistance to the high school.

Montgomery then moved that the commission retire for a brief closed session to further study the problem.

The motion carried and the commission members filed out of the room into private session.

While the commission was in closed session, Campbell invited Kruzich into conference. He then sent a note into the commission, subsequently to which the commission members returned to the open meeting. Leebe then announced that an offer had been made by Levitt to give financial assistance to the school.

Campbell proposed that Levitt meet Kruzich's demands for Phase I of the construction. He explained that this would mean a financial contribution of $20 per two-bedroom single dwelling, $64 per three-bedroom single dwelling, $86 per four-bedroom single dwelling, $2.60 per one-bedroom quadruplex dwelling, $15.60 per two-bedroom quadruplex dwelling, $50 per three-bedroom quadruplex dwelling, and $79 per four-bedroom quadruplex dwelling.

Leebe then asked Kruzich if this would be acceptable. Kruzich said it would, provided it were given in writing. Campbell acknowledged that he would do so.

The plan commission then proceeded to grant approval to recommend the zoning.

Market day

Schools settle property question

NEW LENOX — New Lenox Grade School District 122 and Lincoln-Way Community High School District 210 boards of education spent two days in court action last week before arriving at a compromise settlement regarding real estate left the schools by the late Caroline Bentley.

Representatives of the two school boards spent no more than three hours in actual court session before Associate Circuit Judge Emil DiLorenzo. During the remainder of Thursday and Friday, however, numerous out-of-court sessions were held leading to the settlement.

Under the terms of the Bentley will, real estate left to the grade school district was to be sold with proceeds used for district building projects. The property left the high school district was to be sold with earnings used to establish a scholarship fund.

The legal dispute began when the two school boards decided the executors of the Bentley estate had sold the property at less than its appraised value. Action was then taken to have the sales overturned.

According to Arnold J. Tyler, District 122 superintendent, withdrawal of the sale on one portion of the property had been made prior to last week's court action. He explained that the 160 acre section of land, along Laraway Road and one-half mile east of Cedar Road, will be placed on the open market for resale.

The property had been sold at an appraised price of $875 per acre to a trust held by the Chicago Title & Trust Company with Albert Krusemark Sr. and John Weitenford as beneficiaries, according to opening court remarks by Robert Baron, attorney for the schools. Krusemark is attorney for the executors and Weitenford had appraised the property at the $875 price. Tyler said a school-authorized appraisal of the land had shown its value at $1100 per acre. The second appraisal was made by Frank P. Kelly.

Tyler explained that the executors of the estate have now agreed that the property will be re-sold using legal counsel approved by the District 122 board.

Krusemark said the property had been placed in the trust as a procedure en route to a "contract of exchange" with Hoffman and Rosner Developers whereby the school property would be exchanged for property of equal value in the Frankfort Square subdivision.

Regarding the other piece of property willed the grade school district, Tyler explained that a 3.8 acre portion has not yet been sold and that he expects an excess of $20,000 for the section. The section is bordered by the Illinois Highway and Cedar Road.

The compromise settlement will bring the grade school district an average of $2115 per acre on the 118.2 acres that have been sold, Tyler said. He explained that the seven acres on which the Bentley home stands were sold to the Walsh Family of Lansing, 78.2 acres were sold to Richard Jousma and Edward Gabriel of Lansing, and 40 acres were sold to Sheldon Hauck, Carl Batson, Dwight Egle and Earl Moss.

Batson is the son of Ceward Batson who, along with Ralph Agate, is one of the executors of the Bentley estate.

As to the total value of the property left the grade school district, Tyler said "Personally, I think it should net us an excess of $425,000."

Two 80 acre portions of property were willed the high school district. Supt. Joseph Kruzich explained that the Bentley will called for the sale of these two pieces of land with the proceeds to be invested in a fund with the annual interest to be used for scholarships for Lincoln-Way graduates who are residents of New Lenox Township.

Kruzich explained that at an earlier court hearing a technical question had been raised regarding the trusteeship of the scholarship fund, whether or not the District 210 board of education members could serve as trustees to the scholarship fund. He explained that Judge DiLorenzo had ruled that the board itself could not hold the trusteeship, but that individual board members and the superintendent of the district could individually be named as trustees. He said Judge DiLorenzo then proceeded to name these individuals as trustees.

At a subsequent meeting of the eight trustees, the following officers were elected: Kruzich as chairman, Ken Mundt as vice chairman, Mrs. Beatrice Link as secretary, and James Fagan as treasurer.

Of the two properties willed for the scholarship fund, one had been sold by the executors to Hauck, Batson, Egle and Moss at an appraised price of $1750 per acre. The school-authorized appraisal showed the value of the property at $2000 per acre. According to the settlement, the buyers of the property will pay the additional $250 per acre.

The second property had been sold to Jousma and Gabriel at $1200 per acre. The school-authorized appraisal showed the value of this property at $1500 per acre. By the settlement agreement, the buyers will pay 50 per cent of the difference in the two appraised values. The scholarship fund will, therefore, receive $1350 per acre from the property.

An additional complication had developed regarding the property purchased by Jauck, Batson, Egle and Moss in that the 50 acre south portion of the property earlier had been chosen by a Lincoln-Way site committee as the number one site for additional high school buildings. Both Egle and Harlow Jensen, the real estate agent who handled the sale of the property, had served on that site committee.

Krusemark suggested that the court action had resulted from the high school's desire to have this 50 acre portion as a building site. He explained that he received a letter from the school on July 23, 1971, in which $1500 per acre was offered for the property. The property, he said, was sold to Hauck, Batson, Egle and Moss at $1837.50 per acre. This figure, however, represents a sales commission for Jensen as real estate agent in the sale. According to Krusemark, the settlement agreement relinquishes the total sales commission of $9400 to have been paid Jensen.

Kruzich further explained that he was authorized to offer the $1500 per acre as a result of a resolution passed by the District 210 board. He added that this offer was made as a result of Krusemark's statement at a June 11, 1971 meeting with Tyler and District 210 Asst. Supt. Jonas Lashmet that the property's appraised value was in this amount.

Another charge leveled at the executors by Baron during his opening remarks at the trial regarded the pre-dating of the Jensen appraisal of the property in question. Though the appraisal report was not filed until June 1, 1971, it has been pre-dated to Nov. 7, 1971, the date of the Bentley death.

Krusemark admitted that the appraisal had not been made until April-May, 1971, but argued that the pre-dating had been done as a "practical matter of saving money for the estate." He suggested this would have saved the estate as much as an additional $1000 in taxes.

Krusemark called the entire challenge "an unfortunate chain of events." He said that at his June 11 meeting with Tyler and Lashmet he had discussed all prices involved and added that "everyone was in good faith on it." He argued that the Bentley will had called for all matters to be settled within one year and that the executors were eager to avoid any time delay.

Kruzich said the total amount to be received by the scholarship fund would be approximately $266,000. He added, "Under the present conditions, taking everything into consideration during the negotiation period while the trial was in session, and the circumstances under which I was working, I felt that it was a monetary gain for the scholarship fund."

Kruzich also explained that not all the trustees were eager to accept the settlement agreement. He said that the trustees voted 7-1 for acceptance, with Dr. Lowell Webb casting the lone negative vote.

Builders make leadway

MOKENA — The Webers, William Sr. and William Jr., who reside on Schoolhouse Road, have made some advancement in their quest for permits to proceed with development of 50 of their 90 acres that lie just outside the northeast point of the village, but there are still negotiations ahead.

At its session last week the Mokena village board amended the pre-annexation agreement with the Webers to permit a density of not to exceed 11 units per acres.

The board also opened the way for the developers to launch the first phase of their project — 60 units that will be served by the present sewer system through a connection at Revere Road. If at the completion of these units the village engineer and board members are satisfied that the sewers are adequate for more units, more can be built but not to exceed 90, bringing the total overall count up to 150 units.

If at the completion of the 60 units it is found that the sewers cannot accommodate more units, it was brought out, other arrangements will have to be made. The sewer lines referred to are 12-inch mains. The village has just finished with a closed circuit TV inspection of the mains and the necessary repairs — there were a number of broken or cracked tile and some joints required sealing — are practically completed. Under the pre-annexation agreement the Webers will pick up the tab for the repair of these mains and get credit on permits, tap-ons, and other fees.

Under the density agreement the overall number of units to be erected will be 550. It will be necessary for a sewer line to be extended from the disposal plant along 191st Street to the Weber property. The line, according to village plans, will eventually be extended to U.S. 45. The village is talking about a large main, probably 30 inches. The Webers are expected to pay for approximately 2,500 feet of main. Negotiations are planned which would enable the Webers to recover part of their costs through payments for connections by other property owners along 191st.

Also there could be negotiations related to the size of pipe used and the size that would be required to service the development as an interceptor.

Trustee Robert Teske, who attended the zoning board meeting the previous week reported to his colleagues that that body had recommended a density of eight units per acre. Neither the zoning board nor the plan commission, which also met, sent recommendations in writing to the village board.

When the development was first proposed a 17 density was sought and approval tentatively given on a density of 15 units per acre but then objections began to be heard.

At a joint session of the zoning, planning and village boards about two weeks ago, Robert Mason, of Success Research, a planner retained by the village, put the density figure at between 5 and 11, with 11 the maximum. Duane Linden, the Webers' architect, said it would be economically possible to proceed with the development with an overall density of 11 but not with less than that.

There are still details to be worked out in the pre-annexation agreement, it was said, and also — before the development gets off the ground — the Webers will have to return to the zoning board with a new petition for a planned unit development.

Their first petition asked for R-4 classification for the tract, which would mean that it could have been made up of multiple dwellings only.

The new petition will ask for some R-1 — single family — zoning as well as R-4 and possibly some commercial, it was said. Many single family homes will be included in the first 60 units to be built, it was said, to comply with the request for a buffer zone. There will also be a site to be utilized for recreation purposes.

The board also approved a site plan for a multiple dwelling development on Wolf Road, following agreement by the owners, Michael Gaba and Paul Plebanek to pay for water lines and hydrants, according to the plan presented by the Mokena fire department through Chief Frederick Rauch and Assistant Chief Delbert Yunker.

Fifty-nine living units divided among five buildings — 12 in four and 11 in the other — are to be built on the west side of Wolf Road, between 193rd and 194th streets. The property runs west about 300 feet, it was said. There are to be two hydrants set at the back of the property on 193rd and 194th and one at Wolf and Bryant on the six-inch main. Under state law new water mains must be eight-inch for adequate fire protection. The builders will have to auger under Wolf Road to bring water to the eight-inch mains from the six-inch line that serves Wolf road. Ultimately this will be supplemented by an eight-inch line, it was said. The builders are to pay for the installation of the water mains, according to a motion adopted by the board but the village will negotiate with them on the sewer so they may recover part of their costs through payments from other property owners making use of it, it was indicated.

In other business the board granted permits for two parades that will mark the Fourth of July Festival. There will be a "kiddy parade" July 2 and the regular parade to be staged July 4. The parade for youngsters will form at the Baptist Church parking lot for its march to the park.

The bid of Hulett Corporation, Oak Forest, for completing work on the sewage treatment plant facilities was low by $10 over that of Blaine Saxton, Mokena, and the contract was awarded to Hulett.

Cook County rules out Matteson trailer court

Against the Cook County Zoning Board of Appeals recommendation, the county Board of Commissioners unanimously voted Monday, to prohibit the construction of a mobile home park, planned for the area located in an unincorporated section of Matteson.

To be constructed and sold by the Duggan Mobile Home Development, the trailer park would have brought as many as 954 new families into the area.

The Cook County board's rationale for denying Duggan the needed zoning change was based on the plan of the Northeastern Illinois Plan Commission (NIPC) which calls for the property to remain undeveloped as part of the "Open Lands" program. The property is also located on a flood plain.

The Commissioners' ruling came on the heels of a move by residents and municipal officials to have the Zoning Board of Approval's recommendation blocked.

Heading the battle to stop the construction of the mobile home park were members of the Rich Township School District 227 board, James Patterson and Margaret Anderson.

For months prior to Monday morning's decision, Patterson had attempted to garner the support of local politicians to block the construction move by Duggan and his attorney, Robert Boyle.

Basis of citizen opposition to the proposed trailer court stemmed from the projected figures presented to the school board outlining the number of children who would be attending local schools and living the mobile home park.

Those children, the true number was never revealed, would have attended classes in grade school District 159 and Rich Township High School District 227.

The cost of educating those children would have fallen on the school districts because, under current Illinois law, mobile home owners are not required to pay real estate taxes, a primary source of educational funding.

Margaret Anderson, in her efforts to organize a resident's campaign against the proposed mobile home park, gathered approximately 5,000 signatures of persons opposed to the development plan. She had aimed for only 3,000 signatures.

Armed with petitions and signs, more than 50 persons appeared at Monday morning's hearing. They had taken chartered buses to be present when the Board of Commissioners announced its findings.

In reply to the stance taken by the Cook County Board of Commissioners action, Patterson said, "I appreciate the wise decision made by the commissioners. It proves that they are responsive to the will and the needs of the people of Rich Township."

Patterson explained that the motion to deny the zoning change necessary to developing the property was made by Commissioner Floyd Fuller. The motion was seconded by former Cook County Sheriff, Joseph I. Woods.

There was some confusion on the issue, according to Patterson. One commissioner, Mathew W. Bieszcza, abstained from voting. Patterson explained that Bieszcza's action may have been due to a misunderstanding of the wording of the motion. Said Patterson, "When I walked in down there, I thought that we were in the position to get a unanimous vote. I think Commissioner Bieszcza didn't understand the wording. It was a double negative."

Dangerous intersection

FRANKFORT SQUARE — A traffic hazard exists in the bustling community of Frankfort Square on St. Francis Road, off of Harlem Avenue. There are no traffic control signs in the new community of more than 275 residences.

Entrance on to Harlem Avenue off of St. Francis Road does not require a stop since there is no stop sign.

Three persons were seriously injured at Frankfort Square on Sunday June 18, as the result of a two car collision which might have been avoided if there had been stop signs, yield signs or other traffic control signs in place.

Increased useage of St. Francis Road by residents of Frankfort Square and parish members of St. Anthony Church who will be using St. Francis Woods Chapel for church services this summer increases the need for traffic control signs.

District 145 vacancy

OAK FOREST — TINLEY PARK — Arbor Park School District 145 is searching for seventh school board member to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of James H. Blankenship. The resignation of Blankenship, who is moving to Schaumburg, became effective Wednesday night at the school board meeting.

The vacancy is for the balance of the term expiring at the election next April. Persons interested in being appointed by the board to fill the vacancy should file a written application setting forth their qualifications at the school district office (Kimberly Heights school) no later than noon on July 10. The board hopes to make the appointment at the July 12 meeting.

Wednesday night's meeting was brief since the board was actually in recess from a closed session on the case of former Morton-Gingerwood principal Arthur Adelberg Reports on buildings and grounds and purchasing and procurement were eliminated from the agenda in an effort to quicken the meeting.

Dave Hearn, Bremen Township

treasurer who also handles the bookkeeping for District 145, was present at the meeting to explain that the district would not need to issue any more tax anticipation warrants to close out this fiscal year.

Based on the anticipated receipts and projected bills for June, Hearn, said the district would have enough money to cover June expenses. Harold Summerfield, attorney for the district, reminded the board that the district has $29,000 in its rent fund and owes $54,000 to the Illinois School Building Commission. However Summerfield said that there was no rush to make the payment; he said that the district could pay the commission part of the bill now, or wait until later in the summer when all necessary funds are readily available.

In other business, Superintendent L. Wayne Krula announced that the district census was about 80 per cent completed and should be finished by last Friday, June 16.

The board approved curriculum materials as proposed by James Jones, counselor at Arbor Park school. The board approved $2,558 for testing materials. Also approved were $50 for peat-pods to be used by first-year students in the Human Growth and Development unit and $264 for 400 booklets on venereal disease for older students.

The board accepted four teacher resignations and three resignations from teacher aides. Two other teacher contracts were extended and the contract of Albert Smerz, acting principal at Morton-Gingerwood, was extended for two additional weeks so that he may take part in building planning.

It was announced that Board Members Beverly Laycox and James Cook will make up a committee on administrative interviews to be chaired by Kurula that will meet candidates for various administrative positions in the district. The committee planned to meet with candidates this week.

The board unanimously voted not to make records on students available to the Oak Forest Youth commission.

One woman in the audience asked what is being done to correct a situation which led to the injury of a lunchroom supervisor at Morton-Gingerwood School earlier this month. While she was wiping off a table, another stacked table fell on Grace Felger. She is still in the hospital.

Library has folk lore reading

ORLAND PARK — People of all civilizations have listened eagerly to tales of their folk heroes. Americans are no different. Paul Bunyan is perhaps the most popular. He and his blue ox Babe enjoy many adventures together. John Henry and Paul Bunyan Play Baseball by Wyatt Blassingame presents the new problems of finding a bat large and strong enough for Paul Bunyan and molding balls from whole bales of cotton for the pitcher, John Henry.

Paul Bunyan also accepts the challenge of Tony Beaver to race on his bacon fat skates over Grandma's griddle. The race climaxes a series of adventures in Tony Beaver, Griddle Skater by Elizabeth and Carl Carmer. The Carmers bring another character into focus in their book Mike Fink and the Big Turkey Shoot. Mike's marksmanship over water is a known factor, but his possibilities at a turkey shoot on land are a whole new aspect.

Daniel Webster's Horses by Elizabeth Coatsworth reveals another side of this American hero. His love for animals and his fostering an orphan lad lead to a chapter of Daniel Webster's life that many will find it difficult to believe.

The cold winter weather and an old moth-eaten coat lead to a story of How Davy Crockett Got a Bearskin Coat by Wyatt Blassingame. The story also reveals to the reader one version of why bears have short tails.

These stories make good pleasure reading for a summer day. They are now available at the Orland Park Public Library in the Children's Room. The storyhour programs also continue through the summer. Pre-School storyhours meet at 10:30 a.m. and 1 p.m.

each Wednesday in the Children's Room of the library.

The storyhour for elementary school children meets at 10 a.m. each Saturday at the Orland Administration Building, 14700 Park Lane. For further information about any of these programs, please call the Orland Park Public Library, 349-8371.

Entertainment

Tangerine Tent has workshop for teens

LOCKPORT — High school juniors and seniors are invited to participate in a theater workshop Aug. 12-25, under the tutelage of the Tangerine Tent staff and members of the Lewis College speech and theater department. These are trained professionals, it was pointed out, who are experienced in working with young men and women in all aspects of theater production.

Chester Kondratowicz, director of the workshop, is also director of theater at Lewis and managing director of the Tangerine Tent. His seven years as a member of the Lewis faculty has brought many innovative projects to the theater department.

His credits as a director at Lewis include, "Mame," "Taming of the Shrew," "Three Penny Opera," "Guys and Dolls," "Philadelphia Here I Come," "Oedipus," and "Oh, What A Lovely War." Last year at the Tangerine Tent he directed "Joe Egg," and "The Fantasticks."

During the workshop students will live and breathe nothing but theater for 336 hours, as they reside on the campus and participate in intensive acting, movement, pantomime, voice, makeup, technical theater and theater history classes.

Since the workshop runs concurrently with the Tangerine Tent, students will be able to attend Tent performances and visit with the directors and cast.

A trip to Chicago is planned to visit several historic theaters and attend a professional performance. Also, actors and directors from professional theater will speak at sessions of the workshop. Because it is desirable to work with a relatively small group, it was explained, only 20 high school students who have completed their sophomore or junior year will be selected.

Cost for tuition, room, all meals, theater tickets, tours, and all scheduled activities is $125. For application blank or further information one may write or call the High School Theater Workshop, Lewis College, College of Continuing Education, Lockport 60441. The telephone number is (815) 838-0500.

Paradise: in the money business it's 6% on your savings

That's what we're trying to make South Suburban Federal. A paradise for savers. And that's why we have maintained the highest savings interest rates allowed by law. Even recently, when other financial institutions saw fit to lower their rates, South Suburban Federal kept them up there. That saves you a lot of confusion over changing interest rates—as well as a lot more money in the long run.

South Suburban Federal features five saver programs geared to your savings requirements and your budget. There's a 6% per year, two to five year savings certificate that is paid and compounded quarterly and automatically renewable on a $5,000 minimum deposit. There's also the same type of certificate on a $1,000 minimum that pays 5 3/4% per year. And those are just two of the five you have to choose from at South Suburban Federal.

So, if you want paradise in a savings institution, come to South Suburban Federal, where 61 years of security are coupled with the highest available returns.

Neuzil hits 'misrepresentations'

Editor:

Recently there have been a number of public meetings concerning the proposed Lake Michigan Water Project. While the intent of the overall proposal may be commendable and honorable, I am afraid that the citizens of this community have been handed a distorted and totally biased report based upon the research efforts of Trustee O'Connor.

This, ultimately, may prove to be an unpopular position on my own behalf. However, I believe that I, as a representative of the people, have an ultimate responsibility to those people. Therefore, I am indicating to the people, by way of this letter, my intention of seeking further, more detailed research to alternate water treatment possibilities.

The contract that has been presented to the Oak Forest Board of Trustees by Trustee O'Connor has, what may prove to be, vast misrepresentations. The Oak Lawn contract puts the residents of Oak Forest under the total jurisdiction and mercy of both Oak Lawn and the City of Chicago. It provides for a 30-year, $30 million commitment that offers the taxpayers of Oak Forest absolutely nothing at the culmination of the 30-year period. In fact, the contract "awards" Oak Lawn with 25 percent of all available funds when the bond reserve funds or any portion thereof are in surplus. Beyond that, although the rates charged by Oak Lawn are subject to review every five years, Oak Forest, is also subject to "immediate" (arbitrary?) rate change when there is an increase or decrease to Oak Lawn by the City of Chicago.

The contract also provides that Oak Lawn supply Oak Forest with a rate of water that is determined on a maximum daily consumption average. This average begins in the year 1972 at 3.46 million gallons and proportionately increases through the year 2000 where the figure of 8.40 million gallons is arrived at. The contract then states that "Oak Lawn agrees to supply Oak Forest with water at the rate required by such municipality, 'provided' that the maximum daily rate specified above shall not be exceeded."

There is an "emergency" clause included that will assure us all water under "emergency" conditions only. Unless those original consumption rate figures are dynamically increased, it is the observation of this official that Oak Forest will be under almost continual "emergency" consumption conditions. Those figures are extremely conservative and, although this would normally demand immediate modification, Trustee O'Connor refuses to approach Oak Lawn in an attempt to protect the contractual rights of our citizens.

The contract further indicates that Oak Forest will forfeit the right to directly connect our system with theirs (or "mix" with water). Our underground water supply comes from the Cambrian Ordovician aquifer, a very highly developed underground source. There is no immediate threat of a water shortage from this source and there would not be a probability of a critical shortage until the year 2020. Quantity is definitely not a factor. If we were "allowed" to mix our waters, it could provide a tremendous savings to the citizens while substantially increasing the current quality of the water.

Trustee O'Connor says this is impossible and refuses to pursue it further. However, a water systems expert from the State of Illinois says that it is not only possible, but it is already being accomplished with great success in a community just north of Chicago.

The Oak Lawn contract further states that if Oak Forest should fail to pay its bill promptly, for any reason, Oak Lawn can shut off the water supply to the entire city. If I failed to pay my water bill this month, I could go next door to my neighbor and be assured an adequate supply of water, but where do 20,000 people go? Nothing protects us against an act of God, and this should be so reflected in the contract. Again, Trustee O'Connor has refused to pursue it with Oak Lawn.

Let us be frank, I have nothing to gain by this position. I am not a member of either of the two incumbent parties. I am an independent and my votes are cast accordingly. The record speaks for itself. Trustee O'Connor ran, in 1969, on a campaign platform that promised Lake Michigan water. In March, 1973 there is a new local election. If we enter into this contract immediately, we can have Lake Michigan water by March, 1973. Looks good. But one question you should all be asking yourselves is "where was Trustee O'Connor in 1970?" I am afraid that this is again, as it was in the past, a political football used to "buy" an election. Only this time the citizens are throwing in a lot more than a vote. This is a 30-year, $30 million dollar campaign!

Trustee O'Connor recently, publicly, stated that "originally" he was opposed to Lake Michigan water. If this is so, then what about the campaign platform that got Trustee O'Connor elected? This is quite a contradiction of intentions, which leads me to believe that those intentions are only as predictable as the number of votes they will purchase.

For the last 12 months there have been multiple meetings held between Trustee O'Connor, Tinley Park officials and Oak Forest officials. Several requests have been made of Trustee O'Connor by myself and other elected officials to inform us of future meetings. In every instance but one, I was notified the day after the meeting was held. Further, on more than one occasion, Trustee O'Connor unabashedly admitted to me that meetings were held with another community's officials to "set the script" to make certain that this topic "came across properly" in the newspapers. This is not my interpretation of representative government; it is, however, political public brainwashing in its most acute form.

Lake Michigan water may be what is most beneficial to Oak Forest. But the alternatives have not been adequately researched. Trustee O'Connor's profession is finance, and I am certain that he knows the value of a dollar. My profession is computer systems research and development. I also know the value of a dollar, especially when adequate and sufficient research is waived in lieu of a quick answer for a multitude of problems. It never fails, the ultimate amount of dollars and cents wasted becomes astronomical.

Shortly, the citizens will be receiving a short ballot in the mail initiated by Trustee O'Connor asking for support or opposition to Chicago water. When Trustee O'Connor was asked to include the pro's and con's of "this particular contract" he refused because it would "cause too great a delay." True, the political "monument" just may arrive after the next election!

I would like to take this opportunity to ask the citizens to "write in" a vote in support of Lake Michigan water only if the alternatives to the current contract are researched as adequately as this one contract proposal has been.

If anyone has any question pertaining to this proposal, please contact either me or any of the elected officials c/o the Oak Forest City Hall, 15601 Cicero Avenue, Oak Forest, Illinois. You must act, however, within the next 15 days because this is the "time limit" for adequate contract modifications that Trustee O'Connor has "allowed" us. I feel certain that whatever modifications or suggestions that are offered to Trustee O'Connor by any elected official in opposition to the "political monument" will be totally ignored or refused as in the past. Therefore, that leaves the power of truly representative government where it belongs, in the hands of the people. Please, "keep those cards and letters coming!"

Len Neuzil, Trustee

Kelly urges contract okay

To the Citizens of Oak Forest:

Lake Michigan Water for Oak Forest is up to you.

You will be receiving, from the City of Oak Forest, a request for your vote on whether or not we should enter into an agreement with the Village of Oak Lawn to provide Chicago water to our community. Months have been spent on this study. The facts and details are available through any of the elected trustees but, particularly through Trustee Dennis O'Connor who has spearheaded this effort.

I am absolutely convinced that the agreement with the Village of Oak Lawn is in the best interests of the City of Oak Forest.

I ask and encourage each citizen of our community to respond to this survey by saying that they are in favor of this agreement which will provide Lake Michigan water.

Praise for Capt. Moore

Editor:

As a resident of Tinley Park, I want to publicly commend Captain Harold Moore, retired Tinley Park Police officer, for his actions on June 14.

At that time I was involved in an accident on 191st Street and Route 45. Captain Moore was at the scene and immediately came to the aid of myself and three children, and the driver of the other vehicle. His quick action in setting flares and getting police was much appreciated.

After taking my children into his car while reports were made, he drove my children and I right up to our front door.

This kind of help seems to go unnoticed by the news as well as by people in general.

To find such a person in the light of all the bad things we read about today, is really a pleasure.

I and my whole family thank you, Captain Moore. May the world produce more people like you.

Rafacz gets EPA complaint

ORLAND PARK—The Environmental Protection Agency has filed a complaint against Henry Rafacz and Walter Rafacz doing business at the Rafacz Sod Farm, 151st Street and 88th Avenue.

The suit is being brought by the EPA under its powers authorized by the Enforcement Act for violation of the Refuse Rules.

The Rafacz brothers are charged with operating a landfill near Orland Park since on or before April 22, 1971. According to the EPA complaint the landfill was operated without a permit.

Further, it is alleged in the complaint that the area is not fenced. There is no heating, lighting or safe drinking water and shelter for personnel within easy access.

In addition, the EPA claims refuse is openly dumped without required spreading or compacting; or without providing a six-inch cover placed over the fill daily.

The landfill under question is located on the west side of Route 45 at about 158th Street.

EPA is asking a penalty of up to $10,000 for each violation; and up to $1000 per day per continued violation.

A hearing is mandatory before a hearing officer for the Northern Region of the Illinois Pollution Control Board. The hearing will be held Friday July 7 at 10 a.m. at the Illinois Liquor Control Commission, 188 West Randolph, Chicago.

Park District has summer fun for youths

MOKENA — The Mokena Park District, following a custom launched many years ago, will again sponsor a summer recreation program for the youngsters of the area.

Activities began June 19 with registration at Community Park, where the program will be conducted.

All kinds of games, stunts and organized play are planned. The regular hours are from 9 a.m. to noon and from 1 to 4 p.m., Mondays through Fridays. These are pleasant days for mothers, as well as youngsters, it was pointed out.

What will the youngsters do? Well, there will be dodgeball, volleyball, softball, baseball, football, badminton, horseshoes, miniature golf, beanball and soccer, and this, according to those in charge, is calculated to relieve them of some surplus energy.

Free tennis lessons are being given again this year on the courts at Community Park. They began last Monday and will continue until July 14. The lesson period will be followed immediately by a tournament from July 15 to July 30.

There will be two classes in the mornings, from 9-10 and from 10-11. Classes for adults are held two nights a week, between 7-8 p.m.

Carol Burkhardt, who has been assistant director in the summer program the past three years was put in charge of it this year.

Fire hits building

FRANKFORT — Frankfort firemen extinguished a fire in a quadruminum under construction of Graceland Street, Frankfort Square, about mid-morning last Saturday.

Chief Bruce Wells said the fire started on the second floor and that arson was suspected. The damage to the structure was estimated at approximately $1,000. The address is listed as Building 34.

Library wants land

MOKENA — A request that it be allowed to purchase a two-and-a-half acre plot on the south side of 195th Street, on an elevated section west of the natural flow of water, was made to the Mokena grade school board at its meeting last Wednesday night by the Mokena District Library board.

The library board made an offer of $19,500 for the property, basing the price on an appraisal that it had made. Last year the library board decided that it would acquire a site on which it hopes to eventually build. Some $5,000 was set earmarked for the site purchase last year and a similar sum is included in this year's budget. The library board will continue to set aside site money until it is sufficient to acquire one.

The request for permission to purchase a piece of the property of District 159, which is across from the Willocrest School, was submitted by Mrs. Donald Scofield, president of the library board. The school board, has taken the request under advisement. The title to the land vests in the Will County Board of School Trustees. If the Mokena school board should decide to grant the request it would petition the county school trustees to that effect. The actual sale would be made by the county school trustees.

The school board agreed to discuss the request in more detail at a later date.

According to members of the library board they have looked at a number of sites in the area and the school land seems to be best for their purpose.

Park programs set

NEW LENOX — Don Hayes is in charge of the New Lenox Park District summer recreation program this year, which had its beginning Monday, June 19.

A trip to the White Sox-Oakland A's game July 23 is the first of four field trips planned. Others will be to Brookfield Zoo, Wrigley Field to see the Cubs in action, and one to Kankakee State Park.

The tours are slated for Fridays and may be taken by children who will be starting fourth grade in September through eighth grade.

Kindergarten and first and second graders may take part in a playground program at 9 a.m. Tuesdays at Haines School. There will also be programs at the Lions' Den, beginning at 9 a.m. Tuesday with track and field events; crafts at 10 a.m. and kickball at 11 a.m.

Basketball for boys and volleyball for girls, games, and archery will be provided at Oakview Junior High for those from sixth grade through eighth.

Thieves loot shop

MOKENA — The Country Kettle, a restaurant and gift shop, operated by John and Evelyn Cernauskas at 19834 Wolf Road, was burglarized in the early hours of Thursday, June 15.

Several small radios and electric shavers and $1.35 is "souvenir" money was taken. All drawers in the place were pulled out and their contents dumped by the burglars who apparently were looking for cash.

Entrance was gained by breaking a door. From the entry and the nature of the things taken investigators were inclined to believe the thieves were in their teens.

A breadman, making deliveries around 4 a.m., told investigators that he noticed the back door was broken when he came in at the front, and he heard footsteps of a person or persons running. He did not hear a car engine. It was the deliveryman who called police.

No work, no job

WESTHAVEN — The village board Saturday accepted the recommendation of the Police and Fire Committee and approved the termination of the employment of Policeman Mike Grayczyk. Action came at the Saturday, June 17 board meeting.

Grayczyk had not been on duty in Westhaven since the Melrose Fireworks Display Co. explosion March 6 when he suffered head injuries.

Several months ago a village resident leveled charges against Grayczyk. The resident stated that the policeman had pulled a gun on a group of teenage boys. At the June 3 village board meeting a letter was read concerning the alleged incident. In the letter the boys involved stated that the policeman did not pull a gun on them and that the charges made against the policeman were untrue, and that the policeman had done a lot of good for the village.

After the board's decision to terminate the policeman's employment, Mrs. Ann Woodruff, the resident who had leveled the charges against Grayczyk, thanked the board for its time in considering the situation and also thanked the board for its decision.

Trustee William Presler, chairman of the Police and Fire Committee, discussed the possibility of the board seeking some sort of contract with the Cook County Sheriff's Police in addition to hiring the village's own policemen.

Building Inspector Dennis Ward stated he received a letter from Tekton corporation, a Westhaven home builder, concerning the backlog of complaints on homes.

Tekton has agreed to correct all but two items. The builder will not replace all vertical siding with horizontal siding but will repair the damaged siding.

Tekton also stated in its letter to the village that the company will not fill and enclose the drainage ditch on Highview Avenue or replace the ditch with an enclosed culvert as requested by the Building Department.

An escrow agreement for 10 homes on Phase Three of North Haven Avenue was approved. The agreement will allow the owners of these homes to occupy them before the sidewalks, streets, etc. are put in, provided the proper village and FHA inspections have been made. The sum of $12,400 will be placed by Tekton Corp. in the First National Bank of Blue Island for this purpose.

A permit for an attached garage for Tom Marshall was approved by the board. Marshall had stated at the June 3 board meeting, that he felt he was being discriminated against if he was unable to obtain the permit.

A verbal stop order has been placed on a garage being constructed at 16033 Haven Ave. Inspector Ward stated that the garage does not meet the village building code, and he cannot allow the building of the garage to continue. Ward also stated that the permit for the garage was issued before his time.

The building inspector recommended that several sub-contractors' permits be revoked as damage has been done to village streets and curbs by the contractors. The inspector will present more specific evidence to the board on the damage to support his recommendations.

Trustee Donald Kellogg moved that the board require that all builders in the future furnish a certificate of grade for each lot in the village in order that the village knows what each house elevation should be. Ordinance 72-4, adopting the BOCA Building Code, was amended to comply with Kellogg's motion. The motion was passed with all trustees voting yes.

A 46-foot portion of land, which the village hall garage occupies, was approved for purchase. Village Attorney Ronald Glink stated in a letter to the board that the First Lien Co. has purchased the land and the village would be required to pay either a portion or all of the $432.00 which reflects the non-payment of 1967 taxes on the property.

The sum of $500.00 was allocated for the purpose of rodent control within the village boundaries.

Fifty dollars was transferred from the corporate fund to the bond and interest fund to pay monies now due.

The treasurer's report for April showed a balance of $81,307.56, in the corporate fund.

Warrant No. 45, totaling $1,265.93, was approved for payment. Breakdown on the warrant is as follows: Commonwealth Edison Co., Street lighting, $91.12; Clerk Short clerical expense, $27.41; Village Attorney Ronald Glink, retainer, $320.00; Quality Stationery Co., typewriter, $399.00; Renolds Radio Repair, for squad car, $30.00; Economist Newspapers, $19.25; Electrical Inspector Winchell, $62.50; Plumbing Inspector Curtin $87.50; building department secretary, $78.00; Building Inspector Ward, $90.00; President Whitaker, $60.00.

Trustee Meredith Macki, chairman of the Finance Committee, suggested that a pay ordinance be drawn up for the village treasurer, as his re-appointment comes up in July. The suggested salary for the treasurer was $35.00 per month, at the present time the village treasurer receives no salary.

The Building Department was given the approval to commence with the no cost items to remodel the village hall. Mainly, a partition will be taken out allowing more room for board meetings. Inspector Ward will obtain bids from contractors for the remodeling of the hall.

A letter will be sent to Citizens Utilities Co. requesting that it set up a schedule of shut off times for the village water. The company has recently been shutting off the water supply at inconvenient hours.

The possibility of obtaining Chicago water was discussed by the board. Trustee Kellogg stated that everything hinges on Oak Forest obtaining the water first, President Whitaker stated that the chances of obtaining Chicago water at this time are slim.

Review deseg plans

MARKHAM — The district 144 school board met Monday to review the results of eight public hearings held on a district plan to desegregate the district.

Board president George Hilliard opened the meeting by announcing "No official action will be taken at this meeting. The board is meeting as a committee of the whole to review the items of the hearings."

Also present were members of the school lay committee which recently presented to the board three plans for desegregation of the school district.

The basis of the desegregation plan stems from an order from State Superintendent of Public Instruction Michael Bakalis for the district to desegregate school buildings so that each attendance area reflects the total district minority student population of 22 per cent, plus or minus 15 per cent of that.

The board is expected to meet for more deliberations on a plan at its July 17 meeting, with a final decision expected July 24.

Hilliard in commenting on the desegregation plan told the board that the plan must be implemented in the district by the board. His comments were made after some of the board members said they felt that many of the persons who attended the hearings expected the desegregation program to be put to a referendum of the people in the district.

Hilliard in commenting on the plan said, "What we have here is two forces at work that are 180 per cent in opposition. One of these is the legal or constitutional side, buttressed by court decisions, regardless of public sentiment, the weight of the law is that segregation is bad."

The other force and what appeared to be the sentiment of the hearings is the consent of the governed, that laws are supposed to be reflective of the governed.

Hilliard told the board that is the opinion of legal counsel that, "when the two forces oppose each other the Constitutional force will win."

"It is perfectly proper to hold a referendum to choose the method of desegregation, but not whether or not we should desegregate," Hilliard said.

Future plans for remodeling of schools and new schools were discussed with Joseph Lilley saying, "I don't see how we can talk about a school program or get a school referendum passed without having the people tend to tie it in with desegregation."

Ron Wachowski, one of the members of the lay committee present told Lilley, "There is no sense of the people tying in quality education and a building program with desegregation. We should tell the people we are going to desegregate the schools whether they say yes or no to a referendum, and it is just a matter of do you or don't you want to have improved facilities."

Eagle cage coach quits

ORLAND PARK—Carl Sandberg head basketball coach Ron Patterson has resigned from his post after one year to accept an administration position at Rantoul High School in Rantoul, Ill.

Patterson, after coaching four years at Peoria High School and taking two teams downstate, came to Sandberg last year and compiled a 5-19 record.

Patterson has a masters degree in administration and said he wanted to try to further himself in that field and see what it is like on the other side of the fence. "This chance was offered to me last year and I turned it down, because I wasn't ready, but now I owe it to my family to take it because of the money and opportunities." Also, "The school is only 15 minutes from the University of Illinois, where I plan to get my Doctorate and the school will pay for it."

I think 30 is a milestone in life and I want to decide if coaching or administration is the thing for me." Patterson is 29 years old and has coached for five years. He attended Bradley University.

Coach Ron Mellen, sophomore basketball coach also turned in his resignation along with frosh basketball coach Jim Crater and sophomore wrestling coach Ed Funk. Mellen said he had to resign to dedicate more time to baseball. Mellen is the head baseball coach and said that basketball and baseball run into each other and conflict too often. "I owe it to the kids, I just couldn't handle both at the same time and do justice to both sports," Mellen said.

Frosh coach Jim Crater will remain at the school to teach drivers education but will no longer coach basketball for personal reasons.

The same is true for Funk. Funk will remain to teach classes but will not coach.

Sandburg wins 3 on diamond

ORLAND PARK—The Carl Sandburg Eagle summer baseball team won three, lost one and tied one the last week to raise their record to 3-1-1 in conference and 1-1 in practice games.

Last week Tuesday the Eagles fought to a 4-4 deadlock with Oak Lawn. Jim Harding got two hits as did Crane D'Louly. Two days later the Lions of La Grange handed the Eagles their only loss of the week as Sandberg committed three errors and lost 3-1. Sandberg had one run on five hits and LaGrange three runs on three hits, all runs being unearned off losing pitcher Jeff King.

The next day the Eagles bounced back with a sloppy but deserved 9-7 win over Joliet Catholic. Sandberg committed six errors as Joliet tallied seven runs on only two hits. Joe Stratta was the winning hurler as catcher Steve Nelson went 3-3 at the plate. On Saturday the Eagles swept a doubleheader with St. Francis winning the first game 4-1 and the nightcap 4-3. In the opener, southpaw Jeff King held St. Francis to only three hits while striking out nine.

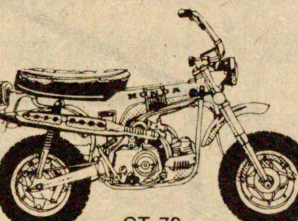

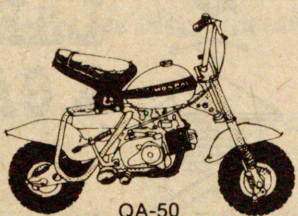

Three Eagles collected two hits each in the game, Bill Nelson, Glenn Kuzek, and Jim Harding all went 2-3 with Harding collecting his second triple in three days.

In the second game John Carroll pitched a five-hitter, striking out nine as, infielder Earl Blummer went 2-4 and drove in the tying run. Head coach Ron Mellen said the reason for so many Eagle errors is because he is really running two teams with freshmen, sophomores and juniors all playing in every game.

In both the LaGrange game and the second St. Francis game all runs were unearned but the Eagles still had the poise to win.

Sandburg hosted Quigley South Tuesday, and St. Francis Friday, June 23, and then travels to Stagg on Saturday, July 24 for a doubleheader. July 24 is the date set for the summer state tournament, with the winners playing in White Sox Park on July 31.

The next three Providence pitchers combined to walk 13 more men.

I have watched the Orland and surrounding area's over the past few years with pride because we are the young "Old Timer's" of the area. From the 20 some years ago when it was a small country town, the grade school and high school were in the same building and Loebe's was the only grocery store. Now we are Metropolitan with a great future growth. Let me help you locate in our great community.

the Federal loop, while Casey and Wood Sports jumped over the Nickelbag Revised in the Continental circuit.

Propelling the Losers to the front were three straight wins while the Bombers were splitting a pair of games. The Losers disposed of the Superchiefs, 28-14, the Knights, 20-3, and the Lugans 27-17.

After just getting by the Bears, 20-19 in eight innings, the Bombers dropped a close one to the Snappers, 19-18. The Snappers scored 10 runs in the last of the seventh inning to snap a four game losing streak. Keeping pressure on the leaders was the Landlovers group with a 21-1 triumph over the cellar dwelling Knights.

Extending their win streak to five games, the Brotherhood polished off the Snappers, 14-6, and the Bears, 24-11. After dropping a close 22-20 game to the resurgent Lugans of Lehmann's Tap, the Nickelbag Revised rolled over the Tappers, 27-7.

Although dropping their only contests of the week, both the Superchiefs and the Roadrunners remain in contention with the Continental leaders. Other winning efforts during the week were recorded by the Latecomers, who bested the Roadrunners 16-10, and the Tappers in disposing of the Hustlers, 34-20, in a "battle of the bats."

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER BY JIM HIRSCH

We all know people who must be handled with kid gloves. Quick temper, usually brought on by tension or nerves, can cause anger to be quickly aroused. On the other hand, we often think gentle people of good will can not get angry or cause others to get angry. When we think that, we can be awfully mistaken.

For example — can you picture a gentle person of good will, walking in a church and breaking up furniture in a fit of anger? With worsening anger, can you picture him throwing people out of the building? If that happened today, someone would call the riot squad and make a special request for a straight jacket. Yet, it did happen, without a riot squad or straight jacket...

Most of us picture Christ as gentle, of constant gracious good will. We picture Him incapable of being angry or causing others to get angry. We are mistaken. We forget the anger He showed when He banged up tables and threw the money changers from the Temple. We forget how He aroused the anger of His captors and how they crucified Him in anger. The thoughts are worth remembering. Even the gentlest of the gentle can righteously get angry and cause others to get angry too...

Our top-of-the-line mower

Won't even start with 'good service policy'

By Gertrude Gallagher

"We'll have to start thinking about the power mower," said Big George.

Charlie and Mike, the four year old Peanut Butter Kid's goldfish who serves as our breakfast table centerpiece, did a back flip with a half turn.

And well they might. Neither pregnant robin, whimsical T.V. weatherman nor Gregorian calendar brings Spring to our house. It's the smell of gasoline and the roar of the power MOWER!

Since the self-propelled MOWER can never be depended upon to propel safely or any other way, Spring arrives sporadically, if ever, at the old half acre ranch.

Getting a MOWER functioning seems a small matter to our mechanical minded neighbors. They flaunt their spark plug gauges; their oil filters; their wrenches with multi-sprocket sets! They scorn using a manual to diagnose the abdominal cavity of a gasoline MOWER.

One of these dudes was out just last week on his riding mower, ear muffs on, roaring through grass and snow like a combination snow blower-mower. Patches of ice were bladed up into enough crushed ice for a summer's supply of mint juleps. The guy actually frightens the new grass out of a year's growth. And to tell the truth he burns me up with envy while he's at it.

This same MOWER maniac is a gungho camper. Every Saturday morning - there he is mowing at 6 a.m. before taking off for the weekend. His Briggs Stratton engine coming in my bedroom window like the sound of a Boeing 707!

Big George has a house rule - "No mowing before 10:00 a.m. on Saturday". The neighbors' sleep, you know! "But all these other dudes do it before 10," say I.

"It isn't considerate," he says making me feel like a cracker crumb.

Then he's out in the midday summer sun acquiring a wonderful tan of freckles and a rotten mood. By then all the morning mowers are resting with their Darjeeling tea or mint juleps, or such.

In general, however, our mower doesn't work. We're known as considerate people whose mower never wakes the neighbors.

We moved to the 1/2 acre to have a little grassy space. Neighbor's marital arguments in a six flat are interesting only to a point.

"Buy the top-of-the-line MOWER, we agreed, confident of having no problems, and honestly facing the indisputable fact of our low mechanical I.Q. "Good service policy too."

The MOWER did give good service those first two weeks. Then when the paint smell died out it too refused to show life. Cutting a 1/2 buried utility cable holding up a telephone pole may have been a contributing cause.

The rest of that summer I spent hauling MOWER to the service center. Big George said, "You'll get better service during the week. And they're nice to little ladies."

Off I'd go in the morning with MOWER in the trunk, its handle sticking out like a huge key. I looked like a windup Chevvie. Other workbound drivers did not take kindly to my cautious 20 mph.

The serviceman, in his mechanical and "be kind to little ladies" superiority said, "Take it out and bring it into the shop, lady."

"Look guy. No way. I'm no Betty Friedan. I admit you're 20 percent stronger. You take it out" I said.

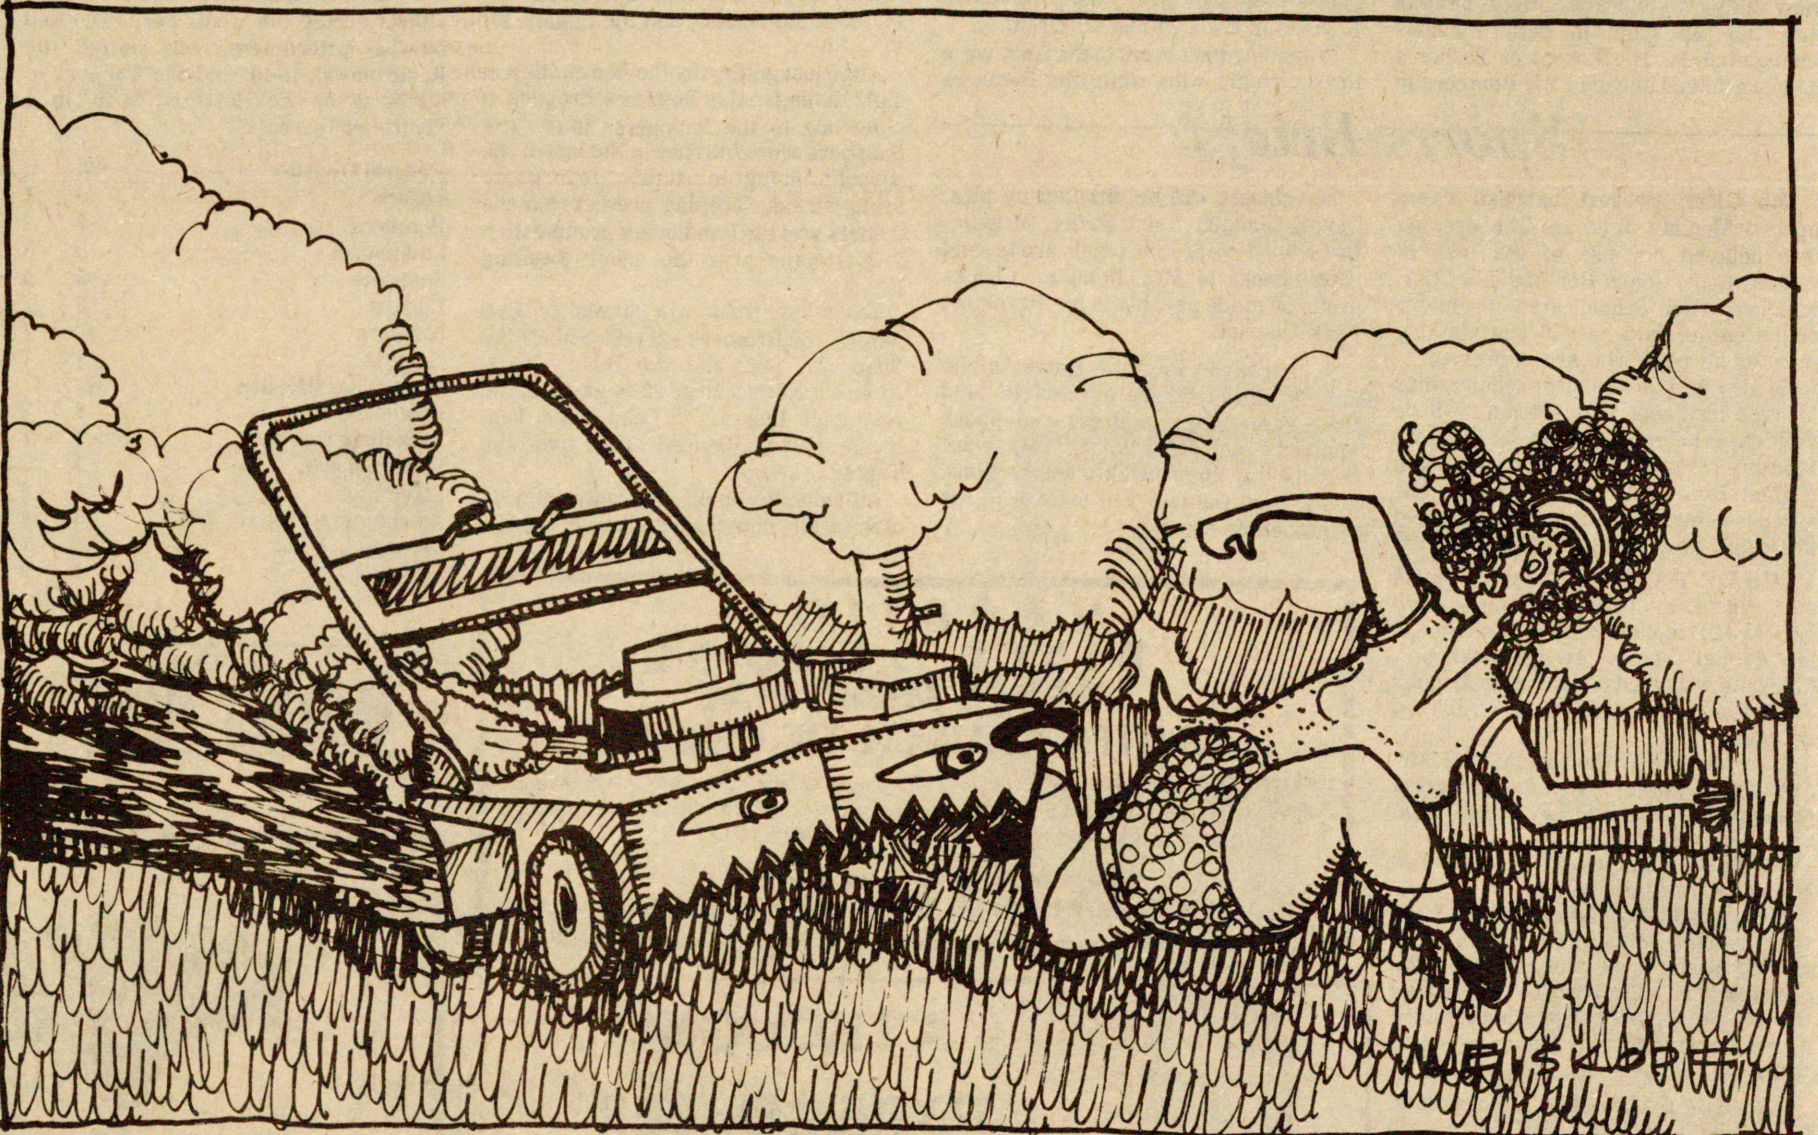

Now he figures he's not paid to do unskilled labor. He's a Skill. A Talent. But he does take it out of the trunk - and out of me by way of labor charges on the bill.

MOWER gets home and still won't go. Back I go the next week. This time it stays in Recovery a while.

In the meantime the grass is responding to the fertilizer. It is now waving and rippling with each gust of wind like a Spencer Tracy wheat baron movie.

A neighbor has a grass eating goat which he won't lend out.

So, I borrowed a hand-pushed, foot-powered mower long enough to botch up a 10 foot square in the front lawn. The 1/2 acre now looked like a kid's head with a bad home haircut.

The Beauty and the Beast

Another idea came. In the garage was a tool called a "whip" which is like a sickle. Father Time and I finished up the year nexting the grass.

The next year old top-of-the-line MOWER wouldn't even give a Spring cough. Back to the service shop for what they called a $12.95 Spring tune-up. This turned out to cost $26.95 with needed parts and a 90 day guarantee.

Back at the ranch MOWER continued to refuse to start. The mechanical genius had failed to correctly put it back together again. For 90 days I made weekly trips to the shop. I was their best customer.

Seventeen years and four top-of-the-line MOWERS later we continue to search for the MOWER that will go with a mechanical fool at the controls.

I have a system scorned by Big George. If I balance MOWER on its back wheels, jiggle it back and forth swiftly, put it on "choke" for an instant and at the precise moment slide it on "high" while at the same time pulling the reel, I find it won't go!

But I feel so darn good at having done something constructive. And the neighbors look and think I know what I'm doing.

So, when Big George said at breakfast we'll have to "think" about the MOWER this year, that's all he really meant.

And that's why I did a back flip over the rice crispies - along with Charlie and Mike.

presently employed at the Tinley Park Post Office.

Her fiancé is a 1969 graduate of Northern Illinois University and is a self-employed dairy farmer.

An Aug. 12 wedding at the Zion Lutheran Church, Tinley Park, is being planned.

SAGITTA SAYS, If your engagement extends through Cancer, June 22 to July 23, know that the Moon rules this period. Like the ebbs and flows of the Moon's influence, your engagement is apt to have great highs and lows; you may find yourselves laughing with gleeful expectation at your coming wedding. Or sobbing inwardly over this change of status.

Cancer is the fourth natural House of the Zodiac. This is the place for feelings of home and family. Certainly it is a perfect period to make plans for the domestic life and future family situation. Sow the seeds now for your unity of two bodies and souls, for Cancer creates the appropriate atmosphere for such deeply personal moves.

TINLEY PARK — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haas, 6549 Glenview Drive, announce the engagement of their daughter Janet, to Gerald Dermody. Gerald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dermody, 17601 S. 70th Court, Tinley Park.

SWAMI RAMA

Yogi says meditation for medication

By Mary Straub

Feeling up-tight? Emotionally depleted and crawling up the wall? Lashing out at everyone at the slightest provocation? Then maybe Yoga is for you. The discipline of Yoga is correctly placed in the realm of the arcana, for it is one of life's ancient mysteries that promises internal reward for external practice.

Between the third and second centuries B.C., an Indian scholar, Patanjali, wrote the "Yoga Sutras" in which he detailed his great knowledge of the human mind and gave instructions for attaining control of this busy and often wayward aspect of human function. The serious Yogi strives for this self command.

We in the west have come a long way; we no longer think of Yogis as religious men who take twisted body postures in order to coolly tread on hot coals or lie with ease on beds of spikes. These are secondary benefits of mind control. One facet of Yoga, Raja Yoga, or Meditation, is apparently for everyone.

"Meditation can make you dynamic, creative, peaceful and helpful to others" remarked Swami Rama, Yoga Master, when he spoke at the Mid America Inn, Burbank, Ill., June 9th. He recognizes that modern man's illnesses are in great measure caused by stress and ill-thinking.

He said, "The mind is as a lake; the emotions are like waves. When the water is disturbed and making waves, the bottom can't be seen. In like manner, an emotionally churning mind hides the glory of God within."

When you are thinking undesirable, negative thoughts, you are left completely alone with them. No one can help you. You must learn to help yourself while in such a state."

Swami Rama, in the tradition of Yoga, suggested that in lieu of artificial tranquilizing or spirit-lifting means, meditation be learned and practiced regularly. The "voluntary process of bringing forward unknown knowledge from the hidden world" rests the turmoil that may be caused by nerves, emotions and possessiveness.

But, what is meditation? It is a process of quieting the mind. First, the muscles of the body are relaxed. Then, one learns to ignore the chatter of the mind, and it too is relaxed. After a time, a new state of awareness results. "Self-realization comes from within" explained Swami Rama.

His Holiness Swami Rama began Yoga when he was 4 years of age. He received his spiritual training in Himalayan monasteries. As much at home in the laboratory as in a temple, Swami Rama has worked in biofeedback programs which record sensitive mind-body relationships; he has been a consultant at the Menninger Foundation, engaged in scientific evaluation of the altered states of consciousness experienced in Yoga.

He founded the Himalayan International Institute of Yoga Science and Philosophy, 3061 N. Lincoln Ave., Chicago, and has been lecturing in the U.S. for 3 years.

People often question whether meditation can cure illnesses. Swami Rama is certain it has nothing but positive effects. Last month (May), he addressed the Crossroads drug rehabilitation center at the Tinley Park Mental Hospital, offering his services so that drug users might learn meditation.

Said John Schwartz, President of the Himalayan Institute, "In Minneapolis' Meditation Temple, Swami Rama has guided some 10,000 people in meditation. One third of them were formerly drug users. They have since substituted Swami Rama's meditation technique for drugs."

A Crossroads staff member, Kent Wiggins, tried meditation some time ago, but didn't have success with it; however, he believes it could help someone who was predisposed to it.

Bob Bunauro, Crossroads Director said, "When Swami Rama was here, he was very well received. The 'kids' were quite impressed with him and with his method." There has been no definite word from Crossroads regarding his offer.

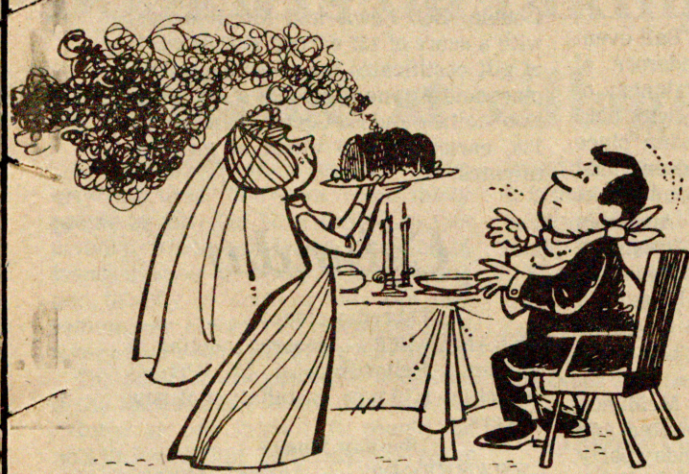

This month, a resolution by Rep. William Murphy of Antioch, Ill., is up for the House vote. Murphy, a man who has "faithfully meditated daily for 3 years" feels that studies should be made of meditation as a practical therapeutic technique in the field of mental health and drug abuse. The passing of his resolution would give the go-ahead to such studies.

Swami Rama's spiritual message to his Mid-America audience was that meditation and selfless action lead to inner peace. "Even the act of charity is accompanied with a sense of ego. It is only when charitable action is done truly for others, with love, letting them reap the benefits, can one be freed from ego. This releases you from the bonds of action."

The key to selflessness lies in the consideration that all belongs to God, though it was meant for us. We are to enjoy everything in his name. Then there is no sorrow or grief upon the loss of anything. There is no attachment to "things."

Swami Rama's Himalayan Institute is dedicated to attain world peace, international integration, understanding, and spiritual awakening of the human race. The man exhibits a sense of peace and confidence within, and one can conclude he knows whereby he speaks when he says, "If you know how to use your entire involuntary system, you can grow and improve yourself. And, try to become more perfect as Christ said you must be."

Arbury Hills

By Marie Hovi
(312) 479-5740

Jordan Marzano, Arbury Hills has been named as a Mokena Park Commissioner to replace Charles Manhart who has resigned. He will complete the term Charles Manhart had begun.

The re-grading for the park in Arbury Hills will begin within two weeks. It will be completed speedily, if the youngsters of the area will leave the grading equipment alone. Parents, please keep your children away from the park area to allow the work to be completed with the utmost speed.

When the grading is completed there will be no bicycles or mini-bikes allowed on the area so that it will not be chewed up by the wheels. If the children continue to use grounds for cycling the parents will be ticketed.

The Mokena Park Commission has already ordered the backstops for the park. Things are looking up.

There is a park recreational program and tennis instructional program at the park in Mokena. Since Arbury Hills is in the park district, we are eligible to join the programs.

Both programs are beginning this week. The recreation program will run through August 11, while the tennis program will have the instructions run through July 14 followed by a tournament from July 15-30. The ages will run from 8 to adult.

The recreational program is for children six through 14 in grammar school. There will be games, stunts and organized play for all ages. It will be held five days a week from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 to 4 p.m.

The Arbury Hills Baseball League will hold a Car Wash to raise funds for equipment. It will be held at Bill's Texaco at 193rd Street and Route 45 on June 24, starting at 8 a.m. and continuing throughout the day. The donation for the services will be $1.50. All the baseball teams and softball teams will participate in the project with the aid of their managers and coaches and other (willing? volunteers). Each child will be notified when to come.

The little girls softball teams, ages 8 through 11, need outside competition. Are there any teams in the area willing to take on more games in their schedules? The girls play 14 inch ball, but would be willing to play 12 inch ball, if necessary. If you do have a team, please contact Mrs. Sue Thelen at 479-9129 for further information.

A soggy week cut down on the number of games being played in the league. Rainouts were found on Monday and Wednesday. On Saturday, June 10, the Frankfort teams failed to show up and the Orioles played a practice game against the Cardinals in Arbury Hills. Earlier in the day the Arbury Hills Pony team, the Braves played a rainout date against Peotone with Peotone having a last inning rally to win by the score of 14 to 11. On Thursday the A team played the New Lenox Braves they lost in the final inning by the score of 11-5 after having a 5-5 tie going into it. On Friday the Arbury Hills Pirates won over the Arbury Hills Braves by the score of 7-3. Congratulations are in order to Jeff Tauber, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tauber of Aberdeen Road, for being selected to receive the American Legion school award by his classmates at the Frankfort School. Jeff, an eighth grader who graduated June 6, was given his award along with Miss Mary Beth Knoll at his school's awards ceremony. The award is granted by the American Legion to the boy and girl students in eighth grade voted most outstanding by their fellow students. There are more than 100 students in the eighth grade at Frankfort School.

The Most Rev. Romeo Blanchette, bishop of the Diocese of Joliet, confirmed several Prestwick residents recently at St. Mary Church in Mokena. They include Cheryl Piumi of Aberdeen Road, Diane Olivieri of Fairway Drive, John Strilich of Pheasant Trail, Kim Jurcak of Prestwick Drive, Donna Kelly of Pheasant Trail, John Vilutis of Pheasant Trail and Ken Kirsch of Aberdeen Road. Everyone was impressed with Bishop Blanchette's sermon. After the ceremonies the bishop posed for photographs with nearly everyone who asked him to.

Tim Schau, Richard Schau, John Olivieri and Mark Dillion are playing baseball this year with the Frankfort Lions Little League baseball team. We hear that they won their first game 31 to 1 WOW, that's some score!

The first issue of Girl Scout Troop 319's NEWS is on the street. It finally happened, the HERALD has competition. Miss Diane Olivieri, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Olivieri of Fairway Drive, is the editor. Welcome to the club, Diane. You are doing a fine job. Some of the girls of the troop are working hard on their badges. To date, they have earned the following: Brenda Persson(1), Sue Stebbins (2), Leri Martin(2), Jeanne Whelan(5), Janet Olivieri(10), Karie Schau(11), Tina Persson(14), Eileen Brew(18) and Diane Olivieri(27). The paper has gossip, naturally, jokes and some really clever riddles.

Winners of the Mixed Two Ball event on June 16 were, Bob Anderson of Glenwood and Eleanor Palanca of Pheasant Trail in first place with a 36 and a three-way tie for second place between Ed Kirsch of Aberdeen Road and Bob Carr of Aberdeen Road as the first team, Marcy Miller of Aberdeen Road and Arlene Kogut of Prestwick Drive as the second team and Lou Cella of Park Forest and Don Martin of Aberdeen Road as the third team, all with a score of 38.

Burt Streeter, father of Pat McMahon of Aberdeen Road, will be visited and feasted at a surprise 80th birthday party by the family on Thursday, June 22. Mrs. Streeter, a member of the medicare group (according to his daughter), has quite a clan coming to visit him — 25 nieces and nephews from all over Chicagoland along with 12 or more grand nieces and nephews. Happy Birthday Mr. Streeter and may you have 80 more.

John Heniff, 17, of Prestwick Drive, has been selected to be the chairman of the youth get together scheduled for the pool on July 10 under the sponsorship of St. Anthony Church.

Vandalism ran a little heavy in our area on the weekend of June 9. Friday, Saturday and Sunday brought our unwelcome visitors out in force. Damage was done to the McMahon home on Aberdeen Road and to the equipment shack for the club. Speeders and partying also were in evidence. The new home of Bob Anderson on Aberdeen Road was burglarized on May 24. Thieves took his range, range hood and refrigerator. Police reports indicated that the items were carefully disconnected and removed. Our visitors are littering the roads with beer cans and empty containers from drive-in restaurants.

Leonard Vilutis of Prestwick Drive just returned from a short business trip to New Zealand. He was consulting with a firm which just purchased one of the Vilutis Co. machines. From what we hear, Len is traveling extensively, consulting on their machines.

Our sincerest thanks to the Will County Sheriff's Police Auxiliary for the added police protection during the Las Vegas Night on June 10. Their car was in the area for five hours.

Our thanks to Glenn Coburn, Will County board member, for being a man of his word. At the homeowners' meeting in May he promised that lights would be installed as soon as possible at the entrance to Prestwick Drive and Aberdeen Road. They are installed and operating. Thanks also to the Will County Highway Department for putting the order through so quickly.

The Calcutta Tournament winners on June 18 were as follows: Joe Bellington, Al Dawson, Jean Sloan and Sandy Flynn with a score of 136. Their prize was $160.00 worth of gift certificates for being in first place. Dick Klare, Sally Double, Bob Lewis and Mimi Meltzer with a score of 137 earned $100.00 worth of gift certificates for clinching second place and Wayne Riggs, Sara Anderson, Bob Meltzer and Lil Cunningham scored 138, earning $60.00 worth of gift certificates.

Booklets on biking rules available at village hall

OAK FOREST—Summertime means bicycling time. In recent years many people of all ages have turned to this activity, whether it be as a means of transportation or a way to stay young and healthy is unimportant; the fact remains our streets and sidewalks show a very heavy increase in bicycle traffic.
 This heavy traffic can cause accidents if the bicycle rider is not aware of the "Rules of the Road". It should be remembered that bike riders have an obligation to observe rules the same as a person driving an automobile. While it is generally understood that all automobile drivers can read, it is not necessarily so with some of our younger bicycle riders. They must be taught to be careful when riding their bikes.
 The City Clerk's Office can provide interested parties with a copy of "Illinois Bicycle Rules of the Road".
 Why not drop by and pick up a copy? It is written with the entire family in mind. It is free and may provide you with the information needed to make bicycling a happy family recreation.

 While at the City Hall why not take the time if you have not already done so to register your bicycle. This is a requirement and could be very helpful in the event of a lost or stolen bike.

District 159 approves budget

MOKENA — The tentative budget for the 1972-73 school year totaling $787,495.37 has been approved by the Mokena grade school board, District 159, and is placed on file in the lobby of the Mokena State Bank for public inspection. The budget will remain on view at the bank until July 26. On that date the board will hold a public hearing on the appropriation measure at its regular meeting and unless there are valid and legal objections will give it final approval.

The 1971-72 budget was $701,442.54, or $86,052.73 less than the one for the coming fiscal year. The difference is accounted for mainly in the education fund. The education fund is used to pay for salaries and educational supplies and expenses. The fund for the coming year is set down at $637,310 as compared to $562,628 last year, a difference of $74,682. This is largely accounted for by salaries.

Salary and fringe benefits negotiations between the teachers and the board are expected to be completed by September.

A further breakdown of the 1972-73 budget lists $39,600 for the building fund, which is for the operation and maintenance of the three school buildings and sites. The sum of $60,285.37 is listed for the bond and interest fund, to be used for the retirement of bonds that were sold to build both Willowcrest and Willowcrest Primary schools. The figure for the transportation fund is $41,300, to purchase and operate buses to transport pupils to and from school. This is up about $10,000 over the amount budgeted last year because if the money is available the school board may buy a new bus.

Superintendent James Ennis said that a 66-passenger bus, such as the schools use, now cost over $9,000. Also in the budget is $9,000 to cover pension payments for other than certificated personnel through the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund.

On recommendation of Will Barenz, president of the board, that body approved the 1972-73 budget for the Special Education Cooperative Board of the Lincoln-Way area. This budget calls for $262,480.14 in expenditures handicapped pupils. There are rooms at Mokena, New Lenox, Frankfort and Manhattan, and a new building is being erected on the Lincoln-Way High School campus. The portion allocated to Mokena is $23,210 but District 159 will get back $15,590 so the net cost amounts to $7,620.

The board was informed that a Gifted Grant reimbursement was being requested from the state totaling $1,854. It was further reported that the 1972-73 Vocation Program has been approved by the state.

Miss Sharon Tilsy was hired to teach second grade at Willowcrest Primary, and Miss Suzanne Jevanovich was hired to teach either third or fourth grade for the district. Their salaries were set at $7,850.

The board also adopted a recommendation of the Citizens Committee that the schools install a telephone dial message program to give informations to parents and citizens. It was agreed to try the program for six months on a trial basis, beginning Aug. 1.

The telephone number will be announced to the public as soon as installation is completed. By dialing the number one will get a message that would deal with school business, and that could cover a multitude of subjects.

This system has reportedly worked out very well in the Valleyview District, at Romeoville.

When the freeway paralleling Wolf Road was under discussion there was talk that one of the routes would run east of Mokena, cutting through what is zoned for industrial purposes.

Mokena did not want this and proposed that it pass west of the village. Frankfort was interested in which way the road would go but the routes for Highway 61 will be at least five miles west of Mokena, it was said.

According to the Illinois Department of Transportation, Division of Highways for the Northeast Region, there will be public hearings on the proposed highway in the area on July 25 and 27, Mayor Tuttle said.

The first hearing will be at Lincoln Way High School and the second at Rich East High School, Park Forest.

The highway will go north through DuPage County and into Lake County.

use, now cost over $9,000. Also in the budget is $9,000 to cover pension payments for other than certificated personnel through the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund.

On recommendation of Will Barenz, president of the board, that body approved the 1972-73 budget for the Special Education Cooperative Board of the Lincoln-Way area. This budget calls for $262,480.14 in expenditures handicapped pupils. There are rooms at Mokena, New Lenox, Frankfort and Manhattan, and a new building is being erected on the Lincoln-Way High School campus. The portion allocated to Mokena is $23,210 but District 159 will get back $15,590 so the net cost amounts to $7,620.

Festival plans underway

FRANKFORT — Individuals and groups that plan to exhibit their wares, talents and skills at the annual Frankfort Fall Festival are advised to heed the midway barker's cry to hurry! hurry! and get their reservations in for space.

All requests for space, including booths, must be in by July 1, according to an announcement made at the regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last Wednesday night.

The Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the festival but the Frankfort Lions have a piece of the action in their annual wiener and sauerkraut supper served in the Veterans Memorial Building, Nebraska and Locust streets.

To make space reservation for exhibits, however, one is advised to call Richard K. Freeman, at the Cone Shoppe, 469-2080, or Harold Slocum, 469-5872.

Spaces for artists and antique dealers will be allotted along Kansas Street and there will be an exhibit of antique cars on the parking lot of Village Building No. 2, Nebraska and Ash.

The Chamber of Commerce will have charge of operating the Beer Garden in conjunction with the festival, as well as the corn roast. Paul Lambrecht will be major domo. The chicken dinners to be served during the festival will be prepared by the women of St. Peter's United Church of Christ. The new civic building, across the street from the village hall that formerly served as a garage, will be utilized by the women for serving the dinners.

The Tollway is well on the road to recovery.

The operation on the Illinois Tollway is past the half-way point today, and thanks to your cooperation, the prognosis for full recovery by August 1st is excellent.

The resurfacing operation extends from the Tri-State and Northwest Tollway intersection, south to a point ½ mile north of Ogden Avenue on the Tri-State. On the Northwest Tollway, it extends from Meacham Road near Schaumburg eastward to its juncture with the Kennedy Expressway.

Please continue to allow extra driving time, especially to O'Hare, try to carry exact change, and above all, do drive carefully. The work crews will continue on a 20-hour-a-day, seven-days-a-week basis, and it seems certain the Tollway will be discharged by August 1st. For up-to-date information on road conditions call 312-654-8990.
